Providing Advice and Protecting the Legal Rights of Truck Drivers

JACK A. DIKE
LAW OFFICES, PC, LLO

Trucking companies and their insurance carriers often deny drivers benefits they are entitled to. These companies have attorneys, money and other resources at their disposal. You do not have to fight alone. With over 32 years of legal experience, Jack A. Dike Law Offices, PC LLO has the knowledge and resources to fight for you and protect your rights.

- What options do you have when your claim is denied?
- Do you have a right to select your own doctor?
- What if your benefits are not paid on time or in the right amount?
- What happens if you were fired?
- What options do you have if treatment is denied or not approved?
- What are your rights?

Let me provide answers to these questions.

At Jack A. Dike Law Offices, PC LLO, I have the knowledge and experience to get things done. I combine outstanding commitment with cost-effective and practical solutions to injured truck drivers. I have the ability to communicate in terms you understand. I represent those who need it most by working on a contingency fee basis. No advance retainer fee or hourly rate agreement is required to obtain my services. No attorney fees unless I recover for you.
